While he was still speaking, there came from the ruler's house some who said, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the Teacher any further?" But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the ruler of the synagogue, "Do not fear, only believe." And he allowed no one to follow him except Peter and James and John the brother of James. They came to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and Jesus saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. And when he had entered, he said to them, "Why are you making a commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but sleeping." And they laughed at him. But he put them all outside and took the child's father and mother and those who were with him and went in where the child was. Taking her by the hand he said to her, "Talitha cumi," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise." And immediately the girl got up and began walking.

God is always with us, even when he seems hidden.
He wants us to look to him every day of our lives.

Study the picture below. How many crosses can you see?
Circle them all!

"The Lord is good to those who wait for him, to the soul who seeks him." (Lamentations 3:25).

What happened when Jesus healed Jairus' sick daughter?

Color the picture, and put the events in order by writing the correct number in each box.

Look in Mark 5:35-43 to check your answers!

- Jesus went to the girl and said, "Talitha cumi," which means, "Little girl, arise."
- Overhearing this, Jesus said to the ruler, "Do not fear, only believe."
- While Jesus was speaking, some from the ruler's house came and said, "Your daughter is dead."
- Immediately the girl got up and began walking, and everyone was amazed.
