I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. And the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.” Jesus said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him. As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever feeds on me, he also will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like the bread the fathers ate, and died. Whoever feeds on this bread will live forever.”

Whoever believes in Jesus will have eternal life.

People live in all sorts of places.
But no matter where we live, one thing is the same:
we can always put God first in our lives!

Draw a picture of the following kinds of homes.
Add a cross to each one.

*"But as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."
(Joshua 24:15)*

Throughout the Bible, we are told to watch what we say.
What does God want us to avoid?

To find out, look at the letters in the speech bubble.
Circle those that are capitalized. Then, form them into a word.
Write the word at the bottom of the page.

God wants us to avoid:

"Keep your tongue from evil and your lips from speaking deceit." (Psalm 34:13)
